1. STATEMENT OF POLICY

AyalaLand Logistics Holdings Corp. (“ALLHC” or the “Corporation”) adopts this Insider Trading Policy to serve as a guide in the trading of the Corporation’s securities as well as the Listed Subsidiaries’ securities, where applicable.

ALLHC is a publicly-listed company in the Philippine Stock Exchange (PSE) and is mandated to comply with all laws, rules, regulations pertaining to Insider Trading under the Securities Regulation Code (SRC). Under Section 27 of the SRC, it is unlawful for an insider to sell or buy shares of their respective companies while in possession of material information with respect to the company that is not generally available to the public.

2. COVERAGE

This policy applies to all Covered Persons who are in possession of material non-public information.

This policy shall also apply to Extended Covered Persons as set forth in Section 7 hereof.

3. DEFINITION OF TERMS

3.1 Securities shall include shares of stocks, bonds debentures, notes, evidences of indebtedness, asset-backed securities; investment contracts, certificates of interest or participation in a profit-sharing agreement, certificates of participation, trust certificates, voting trust certificates or similar instruments; and other instruments that may, in the future, be determined by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).

3.2 Covered Persons shall refer to all incumbent directors, officers, employees, consultants, advisers of the Corporation, and members of their immediate families who are living in the same household, who have the knowledge of material information about the Corporation that is not disclosed or generally available to the public.

3.2.1 Officers shall refer to the President and CEO, Chief Finance Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Vice-Presidents or equivalent heads of departments, Chief Audit Executive, Compliance Officer, Chief Risk Officer, Treasurer, Legal Officer, Data Protection Officer, Corporate Secretary, Assistant Corporate Secretary and Compliance Officer for Privacy.

3.2.2 Extended Covered Persons shall refer to all incumbent directors and Officers of the Corporation and members of their immediate families who are living in the same household, who have the knowledge of material information about the Listed Subsidiaries that is not disclosed or generally available to the public.

3.3 Listed Subsidiaries shall refer to corporations duly registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission of the Philippines (SEC) and whose securities are listed in the PSE and more than fifty percent (50%) of the voting stock of which is owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, by the Corporation, as applicable.

3.4 Material Non-Public Information shall refer to information that has not been disclosed to the public and would likely affect the market price of the Corporation's Securities after being disseminated to the public and after the lapse of reasonable time for the market to absorb the information; or would be considered by a reasonable person as important, under the circumstances, in determining his/her/its course of action whether to buy, sell, or hold the Corporation's securities. As a general rule, information required to be disclosed under the rules of the SEC and the PSE should always be considered material in nature. Material information includes, but is not limited to:

- a. Annual and quarterly financial results;
- b. Mergers/acquisitions/divestitures/joint ventures (equivalent to 10% or more of the Corporation's total assets);
- c. Dividend declarations and changes in dividend policy;
- d. Stock splits;
- e. Material equity investments, debt offerings or equity placements and offerings (involving amounts equivalent to 10% or more of the Corporation's total assets);
- f. Material litigation exposure (involving amounts equivalent to 10% or more of the Corporation's total assets); and
- g. Major changes in key senior management positions.

4. PROVISIONS

Trading by Covered Persons of the Corporation's securities is generally allowed by law and by the Corporation, except in the following instances:

4.1 While in possession of material non-public information

All Covered Persons, from the time they obtained knowledge of such material non-public information is prohibited from trading the Corporation's securities, directly or indirectly, and not allowed to communicate, directly or indirectly, such material non-public information to any person until it is disseminated to the public and two (2) trading days have lapsed from the disclosure thereof for the market to absorb such information.

4.2 During a blackout period

In addition to the prohibition under the immediately preceding paragraph, all Covered Persons are prohibited from trading the Corporation's securities on the day of disclosure and during the following blackout periods, whether or not in possession of material non-public information:

- a. For structured disclosures - five (5) trading days before, and two (2) trading days after the disclosure of quarterly and annual financial results; and
- b. For non-structured disclosures – two (2) trading days after the disclosure of any material information other than quarterly and annual financial results.

Office bulletins for special blackout periods pertaining to non-structured disclosures will be issued by the Compliance Officer.

The sale of shares acquired from options is subject to the above-mentioned blackout periods. However, the exercise of stock options may be done at any time even during blackout periods.

4.3 Within the Short-Swing Rule

Any director or officer is prohibited from profiting from the purchase-and-sale or the sale-and-purchase of the Corporation's securities within a period of less than six (6) months regardless of the intent, pursuant to Section 23.2 of the SRC in respect of the Short-Swing Rule.

The exceptions are: (i) if the Corporation's securities were acquired in good faith in connection with debts previously contracted or obtained; and (ii) the transactions arising from compensation arrangements between the director or officer, and the Corporation, previously approved by the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee.

In addition to any disciplinary action that may be imposed for violation of this particular restriction, all profits realized within that period should be disgorged in favor of or turned over to the Corporation.

5. REPORTING OBLIGATION

All incumbent directors and officers and their respective immediate family members who are living with them in the same household shall report their trades to the Office of the Compliance Officer within three (3) business days from dealing such securities. This shall be subsequently reported to the SEC and PSE in compliance with existing rules and regulations.

All other Covered Persons namely, employees, consultants, advisers and their respective immediate family members who are living with them in the same household shall likewise report their trades (if any) of the Corporation's securities to the Office of the Compliance Officer, quarterly, within ten (10) days from the end of each quarter.

All trades must be reported within the prescribed period to the Office of the Compliance Officer by sending an email to compliance@aglegal.com.ph and allhc.compliance@ayalalandlogistics.com in the prescribed format as set forth in Annex "A".

When in doubt, the Covered Person should consult the Office of the Compliance Officer, prior to transacting securities of the Corporation, in order to determine if the trade will, or will not violate this policy.

6. REQUIREMENT FOR TRADING OF SECURITIES OF THE CORPORATION

Officers of the Corporation who intend to or are trading the securities of the Corporation are required to open an account with and trade the Corporation's Securities only through BPI Securities and execute the necessary waivers to allow the Corporation to examine such trades at any time. Directors of the Corporation who may be trading securities of the Corporation through BPI Securities or other securities firms shall likewise execute the necessary waivers to allow the Corporation to examine such trades at any time. The Corporation shall conduct regular compliance audits in this regard.
